The volume under review contains another excellence Allits pages are supplied with valuable marginal indices. so that a glance at the margin is sufficient to apprise the Another matter of great importance to the lawyer in islation since 1851. Heretofore, the lawyer in examining our legislation on any given subject had first to find what was relevant to it in the Revision of 1852, and then to turn over the pages of the volumes of subsequent Statutes, to see how far recent legislation may have repealed or mod fied the provisions contained in that Revision, and even then he would often feel doubt whether he had found all the legislation on the subject of his inquiry. Messrs, Gavin and Hord have relieved us of all this trouble and doubt. They have collected together in consecutive pages all the statutes made since 1851, on the same subject. Thus, on pages 373 to 377 of their first volume they have collected all our legislation, now in force, on the subject o husband and wife, including the act of 1852 and three act of 1857. And they have followed the same mode o coocation, in appropriate consecutive pages, in regard to all other topics of legislatron. Constitution of Indiana, and several important acts of Virginia and statutes of Congress, and a large portion o our tutions and statutes are found at the bottom of the appropriate pages, in the form of neat, brief and accurate notelied on to do for their relief all it has ever been and references. Messrs. Gavin & Hord seem to have performed this part of their work exceedingly well. It must have cost them much care and labor. By it they have greatly lessened the labor of the practising lawyer, and have well merited his grateful approval.

In every respect the volume under review is highly reditable to the dilligence, accuracy, talents and the taste of its editors, as well as to the mechanical skill and neatnes of its publishers, and it must raise the just expectation of the profession, as to the value of the second volume, which we understand will be forthcoming in a few months, and Without any concert with the editors or publishers of the volume in question, the writer of this article has been in-duced to compose and publish this little review of the book. ited to it by any one, to publish this notice of the boo-DAVID McDONALD. over his own proper name. Wood, Dear Sir-In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending to the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back GOOD FOR PUBLIC SPEAKERS, part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the GOOD FOR CONSUMPTIVES. change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaintances to recognize me at all.

I at once made application to the most skillful physicians in the country, but receiving no assurances from them that my hair could again be restored. I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until fortunately in the latter part of the year 1857, your restorative was recom-SPALDING'S THROAT CONFECTIONS mended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy. rative a perfect test During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the road side, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effect of which my hair was flushly destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappear-ance, I employed everything I could think of, being a pro-fessional man myself; and, as I thought understanding the son to belive produced a very happy result; two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Dear Sir:--I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstances, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth, so much so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a bandsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and he is very well known in our adjoining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of this statement; I give it to you at the request of Bradford.
